DRIVERS AT NEW ORLEANS ENTHUSIASTIC.

NEWS THAT DAYTONA MEET WILL BE HELD THIS YEAR RE-CEIVED WITH GREAT ENTHUS-IASM.

(Special to Daily News)

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—The racing colony in attendance at the big Mardi Gras auto meet, headed by Barney Oldfield, Ralph DePalma and George Robertson, is enthusiastic over the report received here last night that a March meeting will be held on Daytona Beach.

Oldfield declared he will do a mile in 26 seconds or better with his new 300 horse power Benz, while De-Palma and Robertson are equally eager to break many records and winning many races.

Fred Wagner, the noted starter, who is officiating here, declared last night before the good news was received, that it would be a severe blow to the trade and sport if the Daytona meet was not held this year.

U. S. WORLD POWER IN NAME ONLY.

STARTLING ALLEGATIONS OF WEAKNESS OF COAST DEFEN-SES MADE IN ARMY REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The United Press learned today that startling allegations will be made and elaborate charges suggested in the report of the general staff of the army which will be presented next spring, after two years investigation.

The report will declare that the American coast defenses can easily be conquered by land attacks. It will also state that the army is unable to repel foreign invaders.

Japan could within four weeks land 20,000 veteran troops on the Pacific coast and double that force within ten days more. Germany could in two weeks land 200,000 regulars on the Atlantic coast.

The report will also declare that the United States under present conditions is a world power in name only.

STEAMER REPORTED SINKING OFF HATTERAS

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 4.—The wireless station here this afternoon received a message from the steamer Kentucky bound from New York to Seattle reporting the vessel to have sprung a leak and sinking. The location of the vessel is miles off Hatteras. The Kentucky is known to have a crew of at least thirty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McIntire, who were in Daytona on a ten days' tour last, left Thursday on their way

GROCERY CASE FROM FLORIDA IS REMANDED.

REVERSAL OF SUIT WHICH HAD BEEN OBTAINED AGAINST CON-SOLIDATED COMPANY, BUT NEW TRIAL IS GRANTED ON ERROR WRIT.

A case which possesses some local interest was passed upon Tuesday by the United States court of appeals at New Orleans.

John T. Hammond, formerly of Orlando, but now president of the State Bank of New Smyrna, was awarded $25,000 damages in a lower court upon a showing that he was driven out of the wholesale grocery business by the Consolidated Grocery Company, which he alleged is a conspiracy in restraint of trade and in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, lost in the United States circuit court of appeals Tuesday, when the decision of the lower court was reversed and the case remanded for a new trial upon assignment of error.

The error upon which the case was reversed was the admission by the lower court of a letter which was material evidence tending to prove unlawful conspiracy.

PALMETTO CLUB MEETING ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT GAVE INTERESTING DISCUSSION OF INDIA, WHICH WAS ACCOMPAN-IED BY SONGS AND STORIES RELATING TO THAT COUNTRY.

The president, Mrs. Stillman, introduced Mrs. Ida Niver, as chairman of the Literature Department, which had charge of the afternoon at the Palmetto Club.

The Palmetto Club orchestra gave two delightful selections: A—Lalla Rookh, Intermezzo by Pabst; B—Indian Idylle, Nocturne by Papini.

Mrs. Niver announced that the Literature Department had spent its last season in the study of India and gave a very brief description of India.
Mrs. E. K. Bigelow gave an interesting article on the Women of India. Mrs. Bigelow is a very delightful speaker, always listened to with pleasure.

Mrs. Niver gave a synopsis of the Kashmir love story, after which Mrs.
Chowning sang two songs from it; A—Will the Sun Never Set; B—Hindu Slumber Song.

Mrs. H. Y. Thompson rendered in a very beautiful and impressive manner the poem of Shah Jehan. Mrs.
Thompson was accompanied very sweetly by Miss Willaume, who played the Evening Star, from Fauhauser, by Wagner.

Mr. Lane sang, Only a Rose, and Mrs. Chowning and Mr. Lane sang a duet, On Jhelum river, both songs from the Kashmir love story. Miss Blakemore accompanied them.

The department had secured thirty or forty slides of India and Mrs.
Graham Thompson gave an interesting description of each one as it was thrown upon the screen.

Mrs. Wm. Atwood and Mrs. J. B.
Downing were the hostesses of the afternoon.

Mrs. M. Huston had charge of the music.

The afternoon closed with a short business meeting. Mrs. J. B. Downing was elected as one of the delegates to the General Federation, which meets in Cincinnati from the 11th to the 18th of May. It was decided to leave the election of the other delegate until after the club election.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—Everything is in readiness for the opening tomorrow of the big two-day automobile race meeting to be held in connection with the annual Mardi Gras carnival. The meet promises to be one of the most sensational ever held on a mile track, as many of the men entered are record holders and there will be much rivalry.

The practice work augurs well for the smashing of records. Many of the the circuit close to record time to-

OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS.

Harold Zimmer, who came to Daytona some weeks ago from Fort Plain, N. Y., in company with another young man of that place, was operated upon for appendicitis, Thursday, at the Daytona Hospital and Sanitarium.

The young man having had several previous attacks of the trouble, it was deemed best by the physicians for him to undergo an operation and his parents were notified of his condition. His mother, Mrs. Jacob Zimmer, at once came south and upon giving her consent, the operation followed.

SENTENCED TO THE GALLOWS; GETS NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

LEGALITY OF CALIFORNIA STAT-UE UNDER WHICH OPPENHEIM-ER WAS SENTENCED, IS IN QUESTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—One of the happiest men in the big prison at San Quentin, is Jacob Oppenheimer, whose life would have been ended on the gallows today but for a writ of error granted almost at the eleventh hour by the State Supreme Court. The fight to save Oppenheimer's life has been carried on vigorously for the past three years and not until the Supreme Court of the United States has had an opportunity to pass upon the validity of the California statute under which he was sentenced to death will his fate be finally determined. While trying to escape from San Quentin Oppenheimer slashed a trustee with a bread knife. At the time he was serving a life sentence for killing his cellmate. He was sentenced under a law which provides the death penalty for a life-term convict who attacks a guard or fellow convict. 0

BASE BALL MANAGERS AND OFFICIALS MEET AT MONTREAL.

ANNUAL SPRING MEETING WILL DISPOSE OF MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS AND ADOPT SCHED-ULE.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—The annual spring meeting of the Eastern Baseball League opened at the Windsor Hotel in this city today with more than a score of officials and managers in attendance. Owing to the large amount of important business to be disposed of it is expected that it will be the first of the week before the meeting concludes.

The adoption of the schedule is the first important item of business on the program. President Pat Powers proposed a schedule which will probably be adopted without change.
It provides for a season of 154 games the same as last year. The opening dates are as follows: Wednesday, April 21, Buffalo at Baltimore; Thursday April 22, Rochester at Newark, Montreal at Jersey City, Toronto at Providence.

Outside of business pertaining to schedules, there is much interest in the adoption of a new constitution, as was agreed upon at the annual meeting in New York last fall. Some animated discussion is expected to arise over the salary list question.
There was a limit last year and some of the clubs were accused of disregarding it. Some of the magnates now favor removing the limit altogether or placing it so high that it won't conflict with signing high-priced players.

FOR ORATORICAL HONORS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 4.—Student delegations representing many of the leading colleges of Indiana, flocked to the city today to attend the annual contest of the State Oratorical Association. The institutions represented in the contest are Wabash, Franklin, Earlham, Butler and Hanover colleges and Notre Dame and De Pauw universities. The winner will represent Indiana in the interstate oratorical contest this spring.

AGED JOHN SEARLES MISSING SINCE YESTERDAY MORNING.

RACE MEET DEFINITELY DECIDED ON.

DIRECTORS OF FLORIDA EAST COAST AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIA-TION APPLY FOR SANCTION — MORE MONEY NEEDED.

The directors of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association last evening decided definitely that a tournament will be held in March on the famous Daytona Beach race course under the auspices of the Association.

Application has already been made to the American Automobile Association for a sanction covering the week commencing March 20th and at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners next Monday application will be made to have that body set aside the ocean beach for racing purposes as provided by the laws of Florida.

For seven years the speedfest over this hard sand course has been the one real speed event of each year.
While the monster cars were going eighty miles an hour on the straight stretches of the Vanderbilt cup course, the modern juggernauts were speeding mile after mile faster than one hundred miles an hour on the Daytona course. Marriott in a steamer clipped off a mile faster than 120 miles an hour.

For four years the record of Marriott has never been approached, and automobilists began to look on the performance of Marriott as being the limit of daring and speed. Consequently the Florida East Coast Automobile Association officials decided some weeks ago that they would not promote a meet this winter. In the meantime there arrived in America a 200-horse power Benz racer, with which the noted Hemmery had covered a mile over the Brooklands track in England at a faster gait than Marriott travels in Florida. The monster car was purchased by the famous Barney Oldfield, and prompted by a desire to prove the real speed of the car on the Daytona Beach, Barney wired the club officials to ascertain if there was a chance to have the March meeting declared on again.

About $400 to $500 more is needed to carry on the meet and those who have not yet subscribed may sign the subscription list with any of the directors of the association.

FOUR SLEEPING CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH TODAY.

WERE IN ATTIC OF GRANDFATH-ER'S HOME WHEN IT BURNED—MOTHER ESCAPES IN NIGHT CLOTHES.

WILMINGTON, Feb. 4.—Word has been received here of the burning to death of four grandchildren of Ezekiel Hackett in a fire which destroyed the home on the turnpike between Camden and Wyoming early this morning. Hackett and his daughter escaped in their night clothes. The children were sleeping in the attic.

Eighty-Year-Old Tourist Started for the Beach and Has Not Since Been Seen.

John Searles, 80 years old, is missing and his nephew, J. F. Searles, has asked the Daily News to help find him.

The old gentleman, whose home is Rockford, Ill., has been living with J. F. Searles in the Van Dorn cottage, on West Volusia avenue.

Yesterday morning he started out saying he was going to walk to the ocean beach. Toll Keeper Jones, of the South Bridge, says he passed there about ten o'clock, and that is the last definite information his nephew has. A colored man says he thinks he saw the old gentleman on Keating's pier later in the day, however.

The junior Mr. Searles has become alarmed over the disappearance of his uncle and fears that he may be out in the exposure of today's cold.
He says his uncle was somewhat childish and may have become confused and wandered away. Being a great home body the disappearance of the man is all the more strange.

If anyone has seen the missing man they will confer a favor by telephoning the Daily News.

CITY OVERRUN WITH MENDICANT CRIPPLES.

HAVE THE CITY AUTHORITIES NO POWER TO SUPPRESS THE OPEN BEGGARY NOW SO PREVALENT ON THE STREETS?

The city for the past week has been beset with a horde of alms-asking cripples of all descriptions. Legless, armless or otherwise disabled men are to be met at every turn, all with their story of distress to play upon the sympathies of the public.

In many cases, perhaps a majority, they are worthy objects of charity and the man or woman bodily sound and whole must be indeed hard of heart not to possess a feeling of pity for these less fortunate fellow creatures, but it is not the part of wisdom, or even of kindness, to encourage this open beggary.

There is probably no State in the Union which does not provide for the care of this indigent class and it would seem better for them to remain among people to whom they are known than to risk the uncertainties of a hobo existence.

Should the city authorities not take some measures to prevent this influx of mendicant cripples following in the wake of the tourist travel both for the protection of the public and the good of the unfortunates themselves?

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon a wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamy fish (shes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon this beautiful surface. Take out your fish glass and sweep the river from Ormond's bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings. See the glancing leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the straggling figs which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty. Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architect of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering. "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where smiling spring its earliest visit paid and summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia, and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you. The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scenes.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from snail to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you to the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down to your wallet only for coin for auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture, it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

S EABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature 73 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin. For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tide. The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome open house and a Congregational Church, at Daytona Beach is a M. E. Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements of the art and right.

All the attractions of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development in Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon Hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association. The Ocean Pier is again attraction to fishermen and it is every summer and winter with enthusiastic displays of fish and Wilbur, who had it nothing unusual to land his weighing several hundred pounds.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements. Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low. A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile.

Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicer. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO

Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK

A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach. Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobiling, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers. Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road (passing Number Nine) and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At DeLand is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational DeLand is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. DeLand proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that DeLand is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to DeLand is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From DeLand automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from DeLand to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from DeLand to Lake Helen, a like distance.

A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to DeLand. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

NEW FOUNDLAND FISHERIES DISPUTE TO BE ENDED.

COUNTER BRIEFS FILED TODAY BY STATE DEPARTMENT WITH BRITISH EMBASSY AT WASH-INGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 — Counter
briefs were filed today by the State Department at the British Embassy, replying to the British government's statement of the case in the New Foundland Fisheries dispute. Simultaneously the British foreign office filed counter briefs with the American Embassy in London. It is announced that printed arguments must be ready by April 4th.

It is expected that early in May the arbitrators, who have already been appointed, will meet at the Hague to hear final arguments, and it is hoped that their decision will be reached by the beginning of August, in time for the opening of the next fishing season. In the meantime fishing on the New Foundland coast may be carried on under an extension of the modus vivendi of last year.

For more than a hundred years American fishermen have been embarrassed by local laws and regulations of New Foundland with respect to their rights in those waters.

MOTHERS HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

Mothers meeting was held at the Kindergarten rooms on Bay street, Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.
Mrs. H. A. Perkins, president, was in the chair. Two interesting papers were read by Mrs. Edw. H. Armstrong and Mrs. S. Wright. Mrs.
Armstrong spoke on discipline and moral progress, and Mrs. Wright on Environment. Both quoted largely from Child Study, the text book recently adopted by the mothers. Those present were also highly entertained by an interesting talk by Miss Turner, of Boston, who has done much pioneer work in Kindergarten, especially in Cuba, and who, in this talk, drew on the ripened experience which has come to her from years of work in this field.

It was decided by the mothers to extend an invitation to Miss Knox, director of kindergarten at Stetson University, to address the mothers at the next regular meeting, Feb. 23.

DR. WILEY GIVES ADVICE TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

"DON'T TURN FOOD CRANK BE-CAUSE PRICES HAVE RISEN," HE SAYS.

"Don't turn food crank because the things you like have risen in price.

"Don't boycott meat because steaks are expensive. If you do you may get sick, because your teeth and your digestive apparatus were built for a mixed diet.

"Eat more canned goods; they are cheaper than ever before.

"If combinations continue to control the prices of food products the Government may be obliged to enact anti-high-profit laws similar to those aimed against usury."

Dr. HARVEY W. WILEY,
Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Dr. Wiley gives advice to the housekeepers in the present financial crisis brought about in the family purse by the high cost of living, is to abstain from worry and buy everything she has been buying—only not so much of it.

"A ten-cent soup bone will flavor half a bushel of potatoes," said Dr.
Wiley, and will, if cooked right, taste just as good as a dollar steak. With the addition of an onion, a carrot and a sprig of parsley that soup bone can be made to produce enough good, nourishing soup for a big family.
Then after the soup is made, save a little of the fluid and boil it down in the kettle with the meat. Then you will have a "pot roast" which,
if made right, will be fit to set before the president.

"Canned goods of all kinds are cheaper than ever before in our history. Beans and peas have not risen appreciably in price, and make the best of food for man. Wheat flour, at the price it is now selling is the cheapest food that can be bought, and corn meal hasn't changed in price in the last ten years.

"If the American cook would study the methods of the French cook, who uses up all the left overs, you would not hear so much about the increased cost of living. The average American cook throws away or wastes enough to keep the ordinary French family going. Over there they save every scrap of fat and every crumb of bread, and convert them into appetizing dishes. They know how to make the most out of the cheaper cuts of meat. Over here the average cook turns up his or her nose at the cheaper grades of meat and thinks that nothing is fit to eat unless it comes from the neighborhood of the tenderloin.

Of course a great deal of the added cost of meat products has come about as a result of combinations of dealers. The farmer is not getting much more for his cattle than he did ten or fifteen years ago. The Government or the State will have to step in one of these days, if the combinations continue to increase the prices, and enact laws prohibiting dealers from making more than a certain amount of profit."

"FRA DIAVOLO" AT OPERA HOUSE FEBRUARY EIGHTH.

Some of the operas to be sung by the Manhattan Opera Company during the Daytona engagement, which opens on Tuesday night, Feb. 8th are "Fra Diavolo," "The Bohemian Girl," "The Royal Prince," "Martha," "Olivette," "Maritana," and "Pinafore." The Manhattanans are heavily endorsed by the Southern press especially by the Jacksonville Times-Union, after the company's repeated performances in Jacksonville last year and this year.
Miss Kittie Nice Perle is the prima donna with the Manhattanans and her charming work in the leading roles of the opera is bound to be the talk of Daytona as soon as her voice is heard. Messrs. Snead & Weitz are preparing to handle the biggest audiences that were ever inside the opera house, for already there are signs of a big outpouring of people to hear this celebrated company of artists.

Garden by the Knights of Columbus.

lief for members of the order afflicted

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

DAUGHTERS OF EVE.

There were three of them—Jimmie, Margaret and Maud, aged about eight years.

"What are you going to be when you are a man, Jimmie?"

"I'm going to be a lawyer and wear a high hat, like Uncle George," promptly replied the young man.

"And you, Margaret?"

"Why, I'm going to be a mother and sing my baby a pretty lullaby."

"Ishaw, that's nothing," said Jimmie quite loftily. "Anybody can be a mother."

"You can't," snapped Margaret with that finality of the woman's last word which is the end of all controversy.

"And you, Maud, what will you be?"

"Oh, just Jimmie's wife," said Maud, smiling over at the boy, who took the tribute as woodenly as a Turk with a barem full of beauties.

The two babies struck a true note.

The dream of every woman child since Eve is the dream of her true vocation to be the wife of some Jimmie, to be the mother of a baby to whom she may sing sweet lullabies.

Is that all?

No, but that is first. Instinctively do women and their best selves in wifehood and motherhood.

Deep down in the woman heart is the mother instinct and the mother solitude—the love for a man and a home and a baby.

Watch the Mauds and the Margarets at their favorite play of "keeping house." They sing their dollies to sleep and tuck them away in the miniature cradles, cook their meals on the toy stoves and serve them in toy dishes on toy tables, all as intently and faithfully as if it were not make believe.

It is the real homing instinct that moves them happily, like young birds planning the future nest.

And nothing less can fill up the woman heart—not wealth, not social distinction, not success in a public career nor any other thing.

Woman is built that way.

Every great woman artist has so testified. Which does incomparable Mary Anderson care for the more, her home or the stage she gladly quitted for her home? And which career does the great singer Schumann-Heink love the better, her stage success or the care of the big brood of children at home?

Dear Maud and Margaret!

May they win a realization of the keenest longing of true womanhood—a husband to love, a home to keep, a baby to sing lullabies to!

Mr. Zuber's Platform

He Tells How He Stands On Important Public Questions—A Fearless Manifesto.

In announcing myself as a candidate for Mayor of Daytona I will give to the public my ideas of municipal affairs and what I will try to do if elected mayor. I am aware of the great responsibility that rests on a mayor and if elected I will keep the trust sacred and perform my duties accordingly.

I will do everything possible to have good streets.

I will enforce the Sabbath laws.

I will enforce the gambling laws.

I will prosecute the illegal sale of liquor.

I will prosecute all petty cases in the municipal court.

I will enforce all ordinances that are constitutional and ask for those that are not, to be repealed.

I will see that all liens and assessments are recorded according to law.

I believe that our delinquent taxes should be collected.

I will cause to be given an accounting monthly showing where and for what the public money has been spent.

I will give my assistance in helping drainage. Drainage means good streets and also the developing of our agricultural resources, which will be a great advantage to our city. Drainage means health, and with good streets, a good health record and our natural beauty, there is no reason why we should not become greater Daytona.

I believe that all ordinances should be published in order that the public may become familiar with our laws and the acts of its public officers.

I am elected I will be active in all matters pertaining to the good of the city, and with my knowledge of the city I believe I will be of advantage to the public as well as to the city council.

I will do my utmost to give you a clean administration that you will be proud of,
and will assure you that I will in no wise betray the trust that the people place in me.

M. H. ZUBER.

Judge Henry T. Titus Candidate for Mayor of City of Daytona

THE PLATFORM HE STANDS FOR

The prosperity and welfare of the entire city.

Justice to all in Municipal Court, regardless of standing, class or color.

Believes in disposing of misdemeanors in the city court, and placing all fines to the city, rather than encourage the cases being turned over to the State and County officials.

Believes that the city should use every means to have the deplorable streets placed in No. 1 condition, and thus maintain Daytona's reputation of the past—that of having the best streets of any city in the State.

Believes the city should build a side-walk from Midway to Waycross, on Second Street, for the benefit of the colored school children.

Believes in the strict enforcement of all sanitary laws.

Pledges himself to use every effort to bring about a change of the City Charter, for the express purpose of raising the millage and lowering the valuation of all city property so as to protect the valuations of city property from the State and County assessment.

Believes in the continued improvement of the City Island for a public park.

Your Vote on Feb. 9th will be Appreciated

HOLLY HILL

HOLLY HILL, Feb. 3—Tuesday after spending several weeks at Mrs. Edmondson's Mrs. Bogle returned to her home in Plainfield, N. J.

Thursday morning the McCoy Bros. new boat, the Republic, left her moorings for Daytona, to be in readiness for her trip to St. Augustine. The McCoy Bros. are to be congratulated on the appearance of this last addition to their line and we wish them every success in their new venture.

Mrs. Palmer gave a house warming on Wednesday evening in her delightful little bijou cottage to a few friends. Cards and conversation, followed by the daintiest of refreshment made the time pass most pleasantly, and we think if this weather continues her house will need warming some more.

Among our visitors this week we are pleased to number Mrs. Wm. Wilder, Dr. E. L. Potter and Mrs. Edwards.

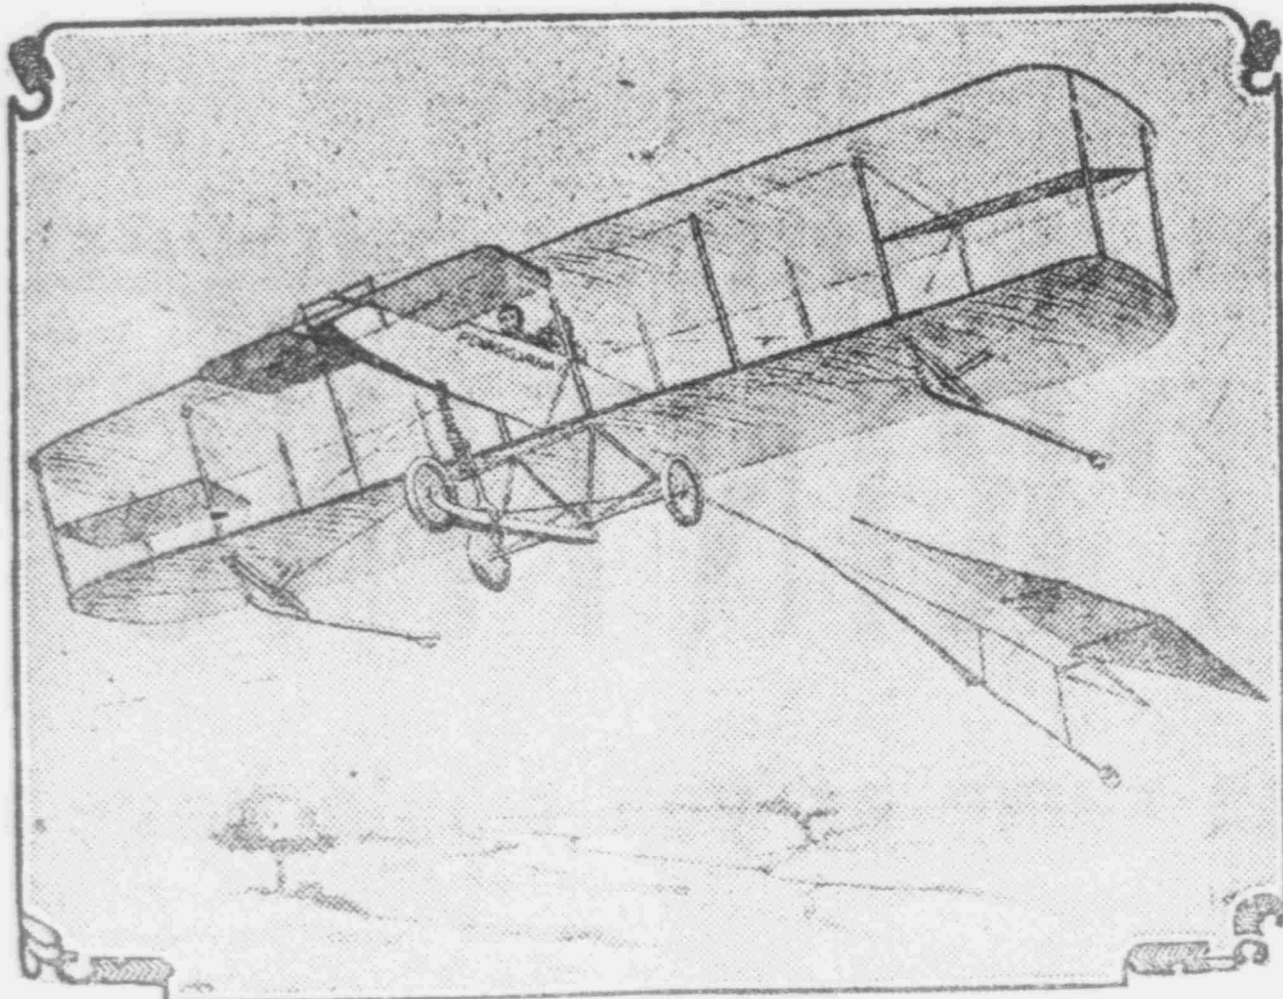

Rev. Abercrombie of Daytona, held services here on Sunday afternoon, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made will continue to do so one or more Sundays in the month.

SEATS FOR OPERA COMPANY ARE SELLING FAST.

Seats for the engagement of the Manhattan Opera Company, which opens at the opera house Tuesday night, February 8th, are already being spoken for, and judging from all appearance a big audience will greet the artists when they appear in "Fra Diavolo," at the opera house. The Manhattans are deserving of every inch of patronage that the people of Daytona can give them, for a big audience will encourage other big companies to come to Daytona during the tourist season and help furnish entertainment. "The Bohemian Girl," and "Martha," will be two more of the operas to be sung by the Manhattans during the engagement. The Wednesday matinee will be "The Royal Prince," while on Saturday matinee the offering will be "Pinafore," rendered especially for the children.

FIRST AEROPLANE BUILT BY STUDENTS

The first practicable aeroplane ever built by college students is the Pennsylvania 1, constructed by undergraduates of the scientific school of the University of Pennsylvania under the direction of L. J. Lesh, a young and enthusiastic aviator. The machine is of the biplane type and embodies many novel ideas. The most original of these is the steering apparatus, whereby a beginner may occupy a seat directly back of the operator and thus be taught easily how to fly. This is accomplished by a duplicate set of steering wheels, which work tandem.

It should be up-to-date the same as you would have your clothing up-to-date.

THE DAILY NEWS JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT

Has just received over one thousand pounds of the most Modern and Pretty faces of Type. This in itself is not so much but our workmen are artists in their line and the combination of Modern Type, First-class Workmanship and Good Paper is what produces

EXCELLENT PRINTING

A new press has also been installed by the Daily News—a Mergenthaler Linotype is also among the new acquisitions to the plant. All this in itself may be of no particular interest to you but it helps bear out the assertion that the Daily News produces the Best Kind of Job Printing. And bear in mind the best kind costs little more than the "botchy" kind.

A BLACK HAND LETTER

By M. QUAD.
(Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.)

Major Cleveland, retired, was in the wrong of it. He had permitted and tacitly encouraged young Mr. Herbert to visit the house and listen to his war stories and fall in love with his daughter Janet, and then when he asked for her hand he had drawn himself stiffly up and replied.

"It cannot be, sir! I am of the army, sir, and, though retired on half pay by a grateful country, once of the army always of the army. My dearest hope is for Janet to marry a colonel in active service. I shall speak to her at once, sir—at once."

"Janet," the major said the next day to his daughter, "there must be no more of this nonsense between you and young Herbert."

That was all. The major congratulated himself that his order would be obeyed, and Miss Janet put on a look and assumed the attitude of a broken hearted girl not long for this world. The mother became worried and protested, and the major became a little bit anxious and talked about spring tonics, though he had no idea of countermanding his order. All might have gone well if the grocer who supplied the house hadn't called his delivery boy a slouch and a lazybones and if the said boy hadn't fired up and quit his job. Another took his place just as Miss Janet wanted to send a note to her lover real bad. The change of boys perplexed her for a moment, and she hadn't time to go into explanations further than to hand him the missive and 10 cents and mention Mr. Herbert. The boy grinned and nodded, and the wagon rattled away, and ten minutes later he was perusing the letter. His name happened to be Herbert, and he happened to be a vain boy, and he further happened to believe that Miss Janet had got struck on him. It was a proud moment for him, for he already had another girl on the string. She worked in a shirt factory, and she wasn't a tony girl, but he loved her. He was also jealous of her, and now was his chance to get even.

Mr. Herbert did not get the note intended for him; Miss Janet did not get a reply as expected; the mother saw new cause to believe that her daughter was not long for this world, and the major sighed and wished that some one would come in and listen to his war stories. That grocer's boy had brought butter, eggs and potatoes, but he had left a load of carking care behind him. Next morning brought something like a sudden thunderclap. Miss Janet received a letter mailed at the village postoffice the night previous. It was ill spelled and was not capitalized or punctuated at all. It was signed "Black Han," and it contained some dire and awful threats. If she did not change her course she would be shot, stabbed, clubbed, boiled in oil and die many other ways. It was to be a first and last warning, and there were many "beware's" in it. Janet was frightened, her mother was more so, and the major swore by the bloody sword he had used at Gettysburg that he would get at the bottom of the mystery if he had to call out the entire army of the United States.

The village marshal was consulted, and he struck a clew. That clew led to a tin peddler, who fainted away when arrested. Other clews were struck and followed, and before night of the first day five persons had been hauled to the lockup. The Black Hand had reached Clifton at last, but it was to be rooted out forthwith. On the second morning after receiving the letter Janet saw the grocer's boy at the back door again, and as she took a bunch of asparagus from his hands she found a missive with it and also received a wink from him. She passed the wink by and ran up to her room with the letter. In a moment she had the Black Hand by the throat. "I showed her your luv letter to me," read the letter, "and she took on awful. She was jeltus, and I guess she wrote you last nite. Don't mind her I will shake her for you."

Herbert, the grocer's boy, had taken over the ownership of the missive for Herbert, the lover. He had shown it to the shirtmaker, and her jealousy had been aroused. She it was who had written the "Black Han" letter. Major Cleveland was plunging around and telling the whole town what he was going to do when his daughter put him on the right track. He rushed off to see the shirtmaker and frightened her into owing up, and he had returned home to tell what punishment was to be inflicted when Miss James inquired: "Papa, do you want everybody to think I am in love with that grocer's boy?"

"By heavens, no!" he shouted. "Or that a shirtmaker is jealous of your daughter?"

"Don't talk that way!" "The note I wrote was to Mr. Herbert, the lawyer. The grocer's boy has the same name, and he thought it was for him. Can't you see that you had best drop the matter at once?"

"But the village marshal has arrested five persons and is after others."

"But he can let them go."

"But I told you to have nothing more to do with that Herbert."

"And is it right that all you have gone through as a brave soldier should be kept locked in your own bosom? Can't you see how much better it would be to drop this Black Hand business and its gossip and invite Mr. Herbert up to hear you tell how you took the enemy in flank at South Mountain?"

The major thought it over, and Mr. Herbert was invited to return, and as one of the family he has got to be quite a war talker himself.

The Frying Pan.

"People are always decrying the frying pan," said an experienced cook, "but the thing they refer to—cooking meat, etc., in a shallow pan with butter as fat—isn't really frying it; it is sauteing. The real frying pan is a deep kettle filled with hot clear lard or olive oil. In this the food—doughnut, croquette or whatever it may be—is immersed just long enough to make it crisp and brown on the outside and feathery and light on the inside. Food cooked in this way is entirely digestible if properly made. But so many cooks make the mistake of putting too much shortening in the mixture to be fried, and the fat inside, combining with the fat outside, prevents the formation of the crisp crust and makes the food soggy."

In the province of Seawind, they smiled at the caper, of printing that skit of frivolous vapor, concerning society's remarkable plan, of inviting the coat, instead of the man. And whoever wrote it, they are willing to grant, was affected by having a wardrobe so scant. So the gossips were swift to make declaration, that they knew who had doctored his own tribulation. Some were willing to gamble on this one or that; some charged it to a woman, and some to the cat. But the evidence shows, and what is drawn from it, that the whimsical skit, was a spark from the comet.

Dr. B. F. Marsh and George Ballard had a pleasant trip Monday to Dr. Marsh's grove at Eustis, in Mr. Ballard's handsome touring car. They left Daytona at 6:30 in the morning and by two o'clock had made the distance, 106 miles, from Dr. Marsh's Ridgewood home to his grove at Eustis, though Dr. Marsh has made the trip in shorter time in his small car. Dr. Marsh was very much gratified to find that, as far as his grove is concerned, not a leaf on his trees had been frozen, though a few of the oranges may have been touched by the frost. Dr. Marsh and Mr. Ballard stopped at DeLand on their return Tuesday morning, had dinner at College Arms, and reached home in due time.
